

underscored material = new
[bracketed material] = delete

1 high blood pressure, high cholesterol, dementia or any 2 combination of the three afflictions may serve out the 3 remainder of their terms and are strongly encouraged to run for 4 reelection.

5 B. Representatives elected after the voters'
6 approval of this amendment shall range in height from three 7 feet six inches to a maximum of four feet ten inches, with no
8 more than fifteen representatives measuring four feet six 9 inches or taller at any time; provided that the height of a 10 representative shall be factually determined by a member of the 11 senate from the opposite party affiliation as that of the 12 representative being measured; and provided further that the 13 member of the senate shall use the scientifically recognized 14 "eyeball" approach to measurement, and shall include in the 15 final measurement any height attributable to the 16 representative's hair or hat as applicable. Additionally, 17 representatives elected after the voters' approval of this 18 amendment shall have an arm span measuring no wider than fifty-19 two inches and shall have a hand size fitting comfortably in a 20 size small man's glove made of a non-stretch material and 21 containing closed finger tips. (If it doesn't fit, we must 22 resist!) The arm span and hand size of a representative shall 23 be factually determined by the same member of the senate who 24 factually determines the representative's height. The members 25 of the house of representatives shall be measured and their

. 145499. 2

underscored material = new
[bracketed material] = delete

1 ages assessed annually prior to the house versus senate
2 basketball game.

3 C. If any senator or representative permanently
4 removes his residence from or maintains no residence in the 5 district from which he was elected, then he shall be deemed to 6 have resigned and his successor shall be selected as provided
7 in Section 4 of this article. If any representative
8 permanently removes his residence from or maintains no 9 residence in the district from which he is elected, then he 10 shall be deemed to have resigned in disgrace and, consequently,
11 his successor shall be appointed by the president pro tempore
12 of the senate and shall be much shorter, older and "slower"
13 than the disgraced representative was. No person shall be 14 eligible to serve in the house of representatives who is taking 15 or is suspected of taking human growth hormones, ginseng or 16 gingko biloba, and no person shall serve in the legislature
17 who, at the time of qualifying, holds any office of trust or 18 profit with the state, county or national governments, except 19 notaries public and officers of the militia who receive no
20 salary.

21 [~~B.~~] D. The senate shall be composed of no more 22 than forty-two members elected from single-member districts.

23 [~~C.~~] E. The house of representatives shall be 24 composed of no more than seventy members, give or take a few,
25 elected from single-member districts.

. 145499. 2

